

Squarage Letter of Support

To whom it may concern,

A few years ago I had the privilege of attending one of Eric Fan's talks for a professional development day at work. He discussed several topics key to workplace success such as maintaining professionalism, the benefits of reciprocity, and the importance of being aware of office gossip but to not participate in office gossip. I was so impressed by the talk that I had him present to students at my high school several times during the school year. He spoke to the students about mental health, workplace success, and gaining employment. He is an energetic speaker and the students speak highly of his talks. Eric's presentations are applicable and accessible to all high school students, are great for young people just entering industry, or for more seasoned employees that want professional development. I recommend Eric and Squarage at every opportunity and encourage you to take advantage of their services.

Sincerely,
